

Puppety Museum placemat with Mr Punch, his wife Judy, their dog Toby and passersby
 Try it yourself? Another exciting activity from the Dutch Poppenspe(e)lmuseum (Puppety Museum). Cut out the pictures and stick them on a piece of cardboard or in a notebook. Arrange them any way you like. Write your own story next to the pictures and create a puppet theatre booklet.

Mr Punch is the main character of British folk puppet theatre, who originated from the Italian Pulcinella during the seventeenth century. Punch wears a multi-coloured costume. He has a pointed cap on his head with a little bell. He also has a pointed chin, a hooked nose, a high hump and a big pot belly. Mr Punch looks like the old-Dutch Jan Klaassen, the German Kasperl, the Hungarian Vitéz László and the French Polichinelle. His wife is called Judy. Just as her Dutch cousin Katrijn, she wears a mob cap. Toby is the name of the dog in the Punch and Judy show. He wears a collar around his neck. Toby's role is often played by a real dog that has been trained to fight with Punch. The dog not only bites Punch's nose but sometimes also sinks his teeth into the puppet's body. In doing so, he also hurts the puppeteer.
