

Press release

Wayang Revolusi. Art in the service of freedom 1948-1949

An exhibition, an educational multimedia presentation, and a series of publications with regard to the project 'Wayang Revolusi. Art in the service of freedom'.

See also: <http://www.poppenspelmuseumbibliotheek.nl/pdf/Pamflet143e.pdf>.

Cultural competence, social cohesion, multimedia presentation and website

By means of the exhibition and the multimedia presentation, we will be showing examples of how a country's cultural Identity – and that of Indonesia in particular – is designed and disseminated through the wayang-kulit-revolusi form of theatre, so that other cultures can recognise and respect it. This form of education in the field of the arts and cultural heritage could contribute towards cultural competence and, more specifically, also towards social cohesion.

Wayang kulit

Various wayang kulit figures will be exhibited, as well as wayang paraphernalia, ordinary and animation films, and bilingual (Dutch and English), richly illustrated publications. Besides printed publications, a digital version in PDF format is also available on the Puppetry Museum site, as well as films on YouTube and Vimeo. Major components of the exhibition include the encyclopaedic function with regard to the Indonesian fight for independence against the Dutch and information about the various types of wayang. The project also includes an extensive educational programme for children, young people (primary and secondary education level), and adults. Refer to 'Information on the subject of wayang from Indonesia' via <http://www.poppenspelmuseumbibliotheek.nl/Wayang.aspx>.

Wayang Revolusi. Art in the service of freedom 1948-1949

On 27 December 1949 Indonesia obtained sovereign power. The exhibition presents how the Indonesian nationalists used this traditional wayang art form as a means of propaganda in their fight against the Netherlands.

In 1947, Wayang Revolusi originated as a special variant on wayang theatre. In an era that media such as radio and television were not very common, the popular wayang play was the ultimate means for addressing large groups with the message of the revolution. The spectators could easily identify with the recognisable, standard and less standard characters of noble heroes and their evil opponents. Wayang Revolusi's main characters are politicians and servicemen of both parties that were engaged in combat with each other during the fight for independence. Well-known characters include Dutch generals Spoor and Van Mook, the Indonesian President Sukarno and Vice President Mohammed Hatta.

Dutch Jan Klaassen and Katrijn and the Javanese jester Semar

The exhibition is based on about twenty kulit characters from the Wayang Revolusi and the Dutch Jan Klaassen and Katrijn (Punch and Judy in England) as wayang kulit puppets (shadow puppet theatre). Of course, the punakawan – comical characters from the wayang stories, such as Nala Gareng, Petruk and the wise fool and divine jester Semar – are also represented. All puppets and characters were specially made for the Puppetry Museum by dalang and puppet maker Ki (lord/master) Ledjar Soebroto. He gave Jan Klaassen, the main character from traditional Dutch puppet theatre, a typical Javanese-style moustache.

Exhibition with turning panels and films

By means of turning panels the kulit puppets on exhibition can be viewed both in real – in colour – and as shadows. In addition to the figures created by Ledjar Soebroto, a work by visual artist Mella Jaarsma (Yogyakarta) is exhibited, as well as various other kulit characters and forms of wayang theatre (golek, klitik, topeng) and their related artefacts (objects, attributes, photographs, prints, books, batiks, gamelan instruments, and paraphernalia from the museum collection). In addition, video recordings of wayang kulit performances can be seen. In a computer animation film produced by Ananto Wicaksono, wayang puppets can be seen fighting for independence. The film shows how Indonesian people nowadays look at the central figures of the historic events that led to their country's sovereignty. Ananto (Nanang) is Ledjar Soebroto's grandson.

Pictures: museum logo and Jan Klaassen

Museum logo: on the left-hand side of the museum logo Jan Klaassen – the main character from traditional Dutch puppet theatre – can be seen wielding a club. On the right of this jolly descendant of the Italian Pulcinella, Semar – the cheerful jester of Indonesian Wayang theatre – is depicted. With a string attached to his hand, he is playfully tugging at the letter 'E' in the museum logo, pretending to be the puppeteer who is 'pulling the strings'. This extra letter 'E' is based on Dutch wordplay. The noun play (spel) is combined with the verb playing (speel), which means that this is not only a museum where you can look around, but, in particular, a place where visitors are often asked: 'Would you like to try it yourself?' (DIY); Wayang kulit figure: Jan Klaassen, collection Poppenspe(e)lmuseum/Puppetry Museum. Creator of the puppet: Ledjar Soebroto (Yogyakarta).
